Alhamdulillah, University of Muhammadiyah Malang (UMM) website has been equipped with a new sub domain, namely Al-Qur'an Virtual (<http://quran.umm.ac.id>) This site contains Al-Qur'an and its translation in Indonesian and English. Bilingual translation is intended to disseminate more Al-Qur'an's contain to more net users around the world.

In this site has not been completed yet by voice features, but we have already linked-out to other sub domain in order to learn reading Al-Qur'an easily toward listening to the correct reading. This site is not interactive, while it can only be seen, heard, read, downloaded and copied.

This site is also not equipped with a question and answer forum, comments and others, that are in both directions. In the future, it will be completed by this forum feature. In addition, it is also not optimal yet in searching, because it is still in the early stages of development.

Hopefully, this site useful for the needy. Thank you very much.
